Extra information about Language for Specific Purposes (LSP) courses

1. Check whether you fulfill the requirements listed in the language course description. If you want to register for an English language course, you must choose a C1+ or C2 level course.
Failure to meet the requirements means getting crossed off the list of the students registered for the given course.
2. In order to register for any course you need to have your C1 Academic Exam passed.
3. Regularly check if you are still on the list! If you have been crossed off the list you will have to register again for a different course.
4. If you want to register for two LSP courses you may as long as you do NOT register for two English LSP courses during one semester. We suggest you choose one English LSP course and one non-English LSP course (i.e., German, Russian or French) or alternatively - one English LSP course and a non-English general language course. You will be allowed to take another English LSP course in the next semester.
